

Grouse sense – The ability to put one's self in a favorable position before a grouse flushes. A fair shot will kill more birds than an expert who lacks grouse sense. Couple grouse sense and luck and you will have a memorable bird hunt that will last a lifetime. I know this to be true, because I'm 71 years old and I've had my share of luck while grouse hunting. December 4th, 2013 was one of those lucky memorable hunts.
